OGDEN, UTAH. - APRIL 21, 1903.

AFFAIRS OF WEBER COUNTY

City Council Transacts Routine Business in Regular Session.

Two Couples Obtain Wedding Permits-Hearings Before Judge Rolapp-House Burned.

The board of county commissioners disposed of the following matters in their regular session: Tht bid of F. M. Farrell for the construction of the new part of the county fall was accepted. The work of construction will be commenced at once. The bid was for $1,599.

Two petitions were filed with the commissioners signed by residents of Ogden valley requesting that the board do not grant a liquor license to any person to sell intoxicants in Ogden canyon this year. The petition recites that in the past, through the selling of liquor in the canyon, several accidents have occurred, and that many people have occurred, and that many people become intoxicated while at the sum-mer resorts and drive recklessly down the canyon, which is a great menace to the safety of the visitors to the canyon, and for that reason they request that no liquor license be granted. Commissioner Stanford reported that in the opinion of County Atty. Hulan-iski, the commissioners have the autherity to grant the application to consolidate the various school districts in the county as they may deem best. The matter will be considered by the board again the latter part of the week. The board authorized County Clerk Hollingsworth to purchase dockets and state laws for the justices of the peace, the cost not to exceed $286.40. Commissioner Fowers recommended that a new road be opened up between Hoper and Salt Creek. The matter was referred to Mr. Fowers to ascertain what it will cost.

CITY COUNCIL SESSION.

At its meeting last night the city council approved the bond of Paving Contractor O'Neill. It also granted the use of the courtroom in the city hall to the civil service commission for Wednesday and Thursday for holding

The Salt Lake Basin Oil and Gas company asked for a franchise to con-struct and maintain gas mains throughout the city for the purpose of supplying natural gas to the residents thereof for heating and lighting purposes and for the erection of stations and a reducing plant. The company forgot to deposit the required $75 for its applica-ing and went to the committee on laws. Another ordinance designed to comresidents on certain streets on the nch to construct sidewalks in front of their property was read once and adopted and ordered engrossed.

Councilman Hendershot introduced a resolution, which was adopted, appro-triating $200 to purchase plants, shrubs and bulbs to beautify City, Lester and Liberty parks for the coming season. The committee on public buildings and grounds recommended the leasing of 75 feet frontage on Twenty-fifth street, part of the city hall square, for a period of 99 years to the Masonic edge for the erection of the proposed Masonic Temple. The committee did not say what rental the city should get Payrolls amounting to $432.25 were or ered paid, and the council adjourned. Elijah Farr sent in a communication protesting against the inefficcient ween Twenty-first street and the Ogden river bridge. The communication

STATE PRESS ASSOCIATION

Holds Interesting and Enjoyable Session in Academy Building.

City Council Meeting - Utah County Affairs - Assembly of Rebekkahs-New Bishop of Tin panoges.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., April 21 .- The State Press association met here yesterday and spent a very profitable and enjoyable day. As the delegates arrived on the early trains they were met by representatives of the local papers and escorted to the Brigham Young academy where arrangements had been made to entertain them and a room had been placed at their disposal by courtesy of President Cluff. They were taken in charge at the academy by a committee of students and inspected the buildings and educational facilities of the institution after which the following program, which had been arranged for entertainment, was through:

Miss Cannon, of the Young Woman's Journal, read an excellent paper on "The Newspaper-Its Usefulness as a Factor in the Progress of Education." She maintained that the influence of the newspaper in this direction was great, and that therefore it should be the aim of the manager of a paper to present his readers with matter that would be instructive and elevating in its results.

Wm. Glasmann, of the Ogden Standard, spoke of "Newspaper Publishing as an Art, as a Profession, and as a Business," and brought out many good points, advocating conscientions, honpoints, advocating conscientions, hon-est work on the paper, and condemning yellow journalism, which had not come

After a few remarks by Editor Mc-Bride of the Utah County Democrat, the association adjourned to the Hotel Roberts, where a banquet had been

Roberts, where a banquet had been prepared for the visitors.

There a very enjoyable time was spent. Postmaster Clove of Provo acted as toastmaster, and responses were made to the following toast: Senators and newspaper men, Senator Reed Smoot. The senator expressed a high opinion of the press and its usefulness in the community and was well pleased with the newspaper men. He took occasion, however, to criticise the habit of misrepresentation into which some of misrepresentation into which some papers had fallen.

"Men in Public Life" was treated by Editor Glasmann in a serio-comic vein, the speaker drawing upon personal experience for humor.

"Utah Journalism" was responded to by Editor Buys of the Wasatch Wave, in the main commendatory and suggesting advancement. "Provo" was given a fine send-off by President Felt, who has a warm place in his heart for the Garden city. Other speakers were E. T. Hyde, I. E. Deihl, Miss Stelle Neff, Murray E. King, James Clove, and other members of the association.

After the banquet the visitors enjoyed carriage rides around the city and to

CITY COUNCIL.

At the meeting of the city council held last evening a motion was carried to the effect that it is the sense of the ouncil that it now determine to conpect the water system with the springs in Provo canyon. The matter has been under consideration for some time and some investigations as to cost, have been made, but this is the first time the council has placed itself on record in positive terms.

Considerable discussion took place as to the time in which the work should be completed. The necessity for con-necting with the springs, and thus se-curing pure water at as early a date as possible was admitted by all, but the question of the increased taxation necessary to complete the work was al-so considered and the opinion prevailed that it could not be accomplished in one It will probably require a 15 mill levy on the present taxable property to make the contemplated improvements, and the general opinion exressed was that the amount could no be raised in less than two and possibly three years; but a start will be made

Approximate costs of two lines of pipe were presented: One on the line of the Blue Cliff canal to cost about $33,990 and one along the railroad grade to cost about $29,060.

The committee on waterworks and the superintendent of waterworks were authorized to make investigations of the Salt Lake and Ogden Waterworks systems with a view to gaining informarovement.

Mayor Taylor presented a communication appointing Jos. Loveless chief of the fire department, and submitting the resignation of Leo H. Bean, the former chief. Mr. Bean's resignation was accepted, and the appointment of Loveless confirmed.

The city marshal stated that one citizen, who was quaratined, had failed to comply with the quarantine regulations in regard to remaining in the house, and had informed the marshal that he had the permission of the city physi-cian to go away from the premises. The marshal was instructed to enforce the quarantine ordinance, and it was or-dered that the city physician be asked

Special Correspondence. Moab, Grand Co., April 18.—The dis-trict court adjourned here today and Judge Johnson and other court officials leave for Monticello, San Juan county, tomorrow.
In the case of John Martin et al vs

George Sadler et al, the taking of tes-timony had been occupying the atten-tion of the court since Thursday mornng and was today brought to a sudden lose for the term, owing to the bringing in of new issues. The case was brought to settle the water rights of Castle creek and would have occupied several days. Stipulations were made continuing the case until August.

A very important case disposed of this week was that of Grand County vs the Grand River Toll Road Co. Some years ago a franchise was granted one S. N. King to build a toll road from Clsco down the Grand river to Moab. The requirements of the franchise not having been met the action was brought to have the road revested in Grand county, and it was so ordered by the
